about

the upper floors provide impressive offices benefitting from excellent natural light, attractive outlooks across the square, and contemporary finishes that complement the building's heritage character. a smart, welcoming reception, passenger lift, air-conditioning, and upgraded common parts create an environment that reflects the prestige of its mayfair location.

location

positioned on one of mayfair's most prestigious garden squares, with tenants such as kkr, glencore and pace gallery from new york. 16 hanover square offers a refined workspace blending period elegance with modern performance. the building enjoys an enviable corner position overlooking the square, with immediate access to oxford circus, bond street and the elizabeth lines at the hanover square entrance, placing the west end, the city, and heathrow within easy reach.
